

Adrian Dominican Sisters
Seek Truth • Make Peace • Reverence Life

AQUINAS HIGH SCHOOL - CHICAGO, ILLINOIS

1915 – 1983

- Aquinas High School was the first school that was the only co-educational institution that the Archdiocese of Chicago established at the request of Archbishop James Quigley
- In 1917, a new building was erected
- In 1930, the school shifted to an all girls enrollment and changed its name from Aquinas High School to Aquinas Dominican High School, per Cardinal Mundelein's request
- School nickname - "Angies"
- School colors – black and gold

Aquinas High School Loyalty Song

Arise ye faithful Aquinites,
Your colors bright unfurl.
Let your voice sing the part
In the choice of your heart.
It's the school for every girl.

chorus

Then sing, girls, and send the strains above
With echoes of a love that ne'er will die.
Sing, girls, along the path of life and bring,
Joy in everything. Victory will ring.

Then lift high the head, the heart, the eye,
And tell America Aquinas offers.
American youth, American truth,
The spirit of faith and honor.
Hail Black and Gold.

To you we sing with hearts afire.
We love to hear your name.
Let the Flame never fail,
Keep the Light on the trail,
And the goal, that is our aim.