ROSARY HIGH SCHOOL – DETROIT, MICHIGAN

1956 – 1974

- More than 3,005 graduates
- Rosary High was built on the west side of Detroit on farmland donated to the Archdiocese of Detroit by the Henry Ford family
- The sisters lived in the school until the convent was built
- The complex was purchased by Wayne County Community College, and Rosary still serves as its West Side Center

Rosary Loyalty Song

To you wonderful Rosary
We pledge our Loyalty!
To you wonderful Rosary
We sing our Fealty!
Underneath the colors of our Queen,
ever forward as a winning team,
we sing, to you wonderful Rosary
loyal and true to the rose and the blue.
Hail alma mater, leading us through,
portals of learning into the light.
Lead us to victory.
Hail alma mater, hail to the rose and blue.
