

PARTNERS AND RESOURCES

PARTNERS

Intercommunity Peace and Justice Center \(IPJC\)

The Intercommunity Peace and Justice Center promote just structures in the church and in the world, with a particular focus on the Pacific Northwest. IPJC is sponsored by 17 religious communities and collaborates with Catholic, ecumenical, interfaith and other organizations in carrying out this mission. The Northwest Coalition for Responsible Investment, one of the Center's programs, works in collaboration with the Portfolio Advisory Board in its corporate responsibility activities. The Adrian Dominican Sisters are one of the Center's sponsors.

Interfaith Center on Corporate Responsibility \(ICCR\)

A national coalition of 300 faith-based institutional investors, including denominations, religious communities, pension funds, healthcare corporations, foundations and dioceses with a combined portfolio worth an estimated $110 billion. They merge social values with investment decisions and utilize their investments and resources to change unjust, harmful corporate policies, and to work for peace, economic justice and stewardship of the Earth. The Adrian Dominican Sisters have been an active member of ICCR since 1976.

Coalition of Immokalee Workers \(CIW\)

The CIW is a community-based worker organization. Our members are largely Latino, Haitian, and Mayan Indian immigrants working in low-wage jobs throughout the state of Florida. Organizers of Taco Bell; McDonald's, and Burger King workers' campaigns have successfully lobbied for increased wages.

CERES

CERES is a coalition of investors, public pension funds, foundations, labor unions, and environmental, religious and public interest groups, working in partnership with companies toward the common goal of corporate environmental responsibility worldwide. CERES is the institutional home of the CERES Principles and the creator and secretariat of the Global Reporting Initiative.

RESOURCES

Boston Common Asset Management

BCAM is an experienced investment manager and leader in global sustainability initiatives. The firm's unique investment process enhances conventional investment analysis with its proprietary Environmental, Social, and Governance (ESG) framework. The firm's overall goal is to preserve and build capital by constructing diversified portfolios of high quality, sustainable stocks, with a keen focus on valuation, and to thereby outperform not only over a market cycle, but to achieve this with greater consistency and less volatility than market benchmarks.

Center of Concern

Since 1971, the Center of Concern has worked with international networks promoting social analysis, theological reflection, policy analysis, political advocacy, research and public education on issues of global development including global women's projects, peace, social justice, food security, human rights, racial justice and rethinking Bretton Woods

Consumers Union

The Consumers Union works with its million plus activists to pass consumer protection laws in states and in Congress. They “hammer corporations that do wrong by their customers, and encourage companies that are heading in the right direction.” They also promote the consumer's interests through research and education projects, conferences and policy papers.

Domini Social Investments

Domini Social Investments expresses its ideals and uses its capital in three basic ways: social screening, shareholder activism and community development. Domini votes all of its proxies according to principles of social responsibility, publishes its annual proxy voting guidelines, and publicly discloses all of its proxy votes. Domini engages corporations in dialogue on social issues, and occasionally files shareholder resolutions to place these issues on the proxy ballot

ECPAT-USA

ECPAT-USA is the leading anti-trafficking policy organization in the United States. ECPAT-USA belongs to an international network of organization in 80 countries, all working to end the commercial sexual exploitation of children. To protect every child's basic human right to grow up free from the threat of sexual exploitation and trafficking.

Environmental Working Group

The mission of the Environmental Working Group (EWG) is to use the power of public information to protect public health and the environment. The EWG specializes in providing useful resources (like Skin Deep and The Shopper's Guide to Pesticides in Produce) to consumers while simultaneously pushing for national policy change.

Free the Slaves

Free the Slaves is a not-for profit formed in response to Dr. Kevin Bales' groundbreaking book, Disposable People. The award-winning book introduced much of the world to modern-day slavery, including a business strategist and a television producer

Green America

Formerly Co-op America

Green America's mission is to harness economic power—the strength of consumers, investors, businesses, and the marketplace—to create a socially just and environmentally sustainable society. It is a national, nonprofit, education organization which has worked with consumers, investors, and businesses for over 17 years and is the publisher of National Green Pages.™

Health Care Without Harm

Health Care without Harm, the Campaign for Environmentally Responsible Health Care, has a mission to transform the health care industry worldwide, without compromising patient safety or care, so that it is ecologically sustainable and no longer a source of harm to public health and the environment.

Investor Environmental Health Network

The Investor Environmental Health Network is a collaborative partnership of investment managers, advised by nongovernmental organizations, concerned about the financial and public health risks associated with corporate toxic chemical polices.

Jubilee USA Network

a part of the international movement calling for cancellation of the unpayable debt of the world's poorest countries under a fair and transparent process.

National Catholic Rural Life Conference

The National Catholic Rural Life Conference is a membership organization that serves the mission of the Church by communicating a Catholic perspective and urging public action on rural life and environmental issues.

CATHOLIC RURAL LIFE
Applying the teachings of Jesus Christ for the betterment of rural America

Our Stolen Future

The web site of the authors of the book Our Stolen Future, which provides regular updates about cutting-edge science related to endocrine disruption; information about ongoing policy debates; as well as new suggestions about what you can do as a consumer and citizen to minimize risks related to hormonally-disruptive contaminants.

Oxfam America

Oxfam America is a non-profit organization that works to end global poverty through saving lives, strengthening communities, and campaigning for change. We are an affiliate of Oxfam International.

Responsible Sourcing Network

RSN champions human rights with vulnerable communities in the mining and harvesting of raw materials found in products we use every day. Responsible Sourcing Network (RSN), a project of the nonprofit organization As You Sow (www.asyousow.org), is dedicated to ending human rights abuses and forced labor associated with the raw materials found in products we use every day. RSN builds responsible supply chain coalitions of diverse stakeholders including investors, companies, and human rights advocates. Currently, RSN works with network participants to leverage their influence in the areas of conflict minerals from the Congo and forced labor in the cotton fields of Uzbekistan to create positive change for brands, consumers, and the impacted communities.

Social Investment Forum

A national, nonprofit membership association, Social Investment Forum (SIF) is dedicated to promoting the concept, practice and growth of socially responsible investing. The SIF web site offers information, contacts and resources on socially responsible investing.

Truckers against Trafficking

Truckers Against Trafficking (TAT) is a 501(c)3 that exists to educate, equip, empower and mobilize members of the trucking and travel plaza industry to combat domestic sex trafficking. Truckers against Trafficking recognizes that members of the trucking industry and individual truckers are invaluable in the fight against this heinous crime. As the eyes and ears of our nation's highways, you are in a unique position to make a difference and close loopholes to traffickers who seek to exploit our transportation system for their personal gain. This site has been created to inform members of the trucking industry and other travelers of the basic issues involved in human trafficking and a summary of ways you can help. We invite you to travel through this website and learn how you can join this worthy cause and save lives.

Union of Concerned Scientists

A partnership of citizens and scientists, the Union of Concerned Scientists has been working to preserve health, protect safety and enhance quality of life since 1969.

